*Jesus has alluded to this Psalms in Mt 27:35, 39 and 43. Matthew writes the Hebrew as it would have been written in the Hebrew of Psalms 22, while Mark records Jesus' actual Aramaic statement. +these last statements may have been reversed. Both Psalms 22 (written c. 10th century BC) and Wisdom 2:12-24 (written c. 100 BC) are vivid descriptions of Jesus' Passion.

Handout 2: Matthew Lesson 26

After His resurrection, Jesus taught the Church for forty days prior to His Ascension to the Father (Acts 1:3), appearing and disappearing at will. During the time between His Resurrection and Ascension, He continually visited with His Apostles and disciples:

- He appeared to the group of women disciples who had gone to His tomb on Resurrection Sunday (Mt 28:9-10).
- He appeared to Mary Magdalene on Resurrection Sunday (Mk 16:9-11; Jn 20:11-18).
- He appeared to Cleopas and another disciple on the road to Emmaus on Resurrection Sunday (Mk 16:12-13; Lk 24:13-32).
- He appeared to ten of the Apostles in the Upper Room on Resurrection Sunday (Lk 24:34-45; Jn 20:19-23).
- He appeared to Simon-Peter [Kephas] (Lk 24:34; 1 Cor 15:5).
- He appeared to the eleven Apostles eight days later (as the ancients counted), on the next Sunday (Mk 16:14-18; Jn 20:24-29).
- In the Galilee He appeared to the Apostles on a mountain and on the seashore (Mt 28:16-20; Jn 21:1-23).
- He appeared to His kinsman James who will become the first Christian bishop of Jerusalem (I Cor 15:6).
- He appeared to 500 people (1 Cor 15:7).
- He appeared one final time to the Apostles and disciples on the Mt. of Olives, from where He ascended to the Father (Mk 16:19; Lk 24:50-53; Acts 1:6-12).

Handout 3: Lenten Study Lesson 6 In His death and resurrection, Jesus has ushered in a new and everlasting covenant that fulfills and surpasses all previous covenants (see the chart "Yahweh's Eight Covenants"):

1. The covenant with Adam       Jesus is the "new Adam" who has atoned for the sin of the first Adam, conquerings in and death and bringing forth His Bride, the Church, from His pierced side as Eve was born from the side of Adam (Rom 5:14-21; 1 Cor 15:20-45; CCC 359, 411, 504, 766).         2. The covenant with Noah       Jesus' gift of the Sacrament of baptism has restored man, through water and the Spirit to renewed life (In 3:3, 5; 1 Pt 3:21, CCC 628, 1094).         3. The three-fold Abrahamic covenant:       1. a kingdom         3. a world-wide blessing.       Jesus has fulfilled the three promises made to Abraham (CCC 59, 706, 762-66);         4. The three-fold Abrahamic covenant:       1. a kingdom         3. a world-wide blessing.       Jesus has fulfilled the three promises made to Abraham (CMC 59, 706, 762-66);         4. The Covenant at Sinai       Jesus has fulfilled the three promises made to Abraham (Rom 9-68; Gal 3:29).         3. As Abraham's descendant, Jesus has brought a world-wide blessing through His universal covenant that is open to men and women of all nations (Gal 3:8).         4. The Covenant at Sinai       Jesus has fulfilled all the blood rituals and purification rituals of the old Law in His one perfect sacrifice on the altar of the Cross, having made atonement for the sins of man and offering continual purification through the Eucharist and the other Sacrifice and fulfillem of the Sinai Covenant, Jesus has filed God's people from the curse of failing to keep the old Law (Dt 28:15; Rom 3:21-26; CG 21141-43).         5.
